

THE FUTURE OF INVESTMENT ARBITRATION IN EUROPE

On 1 June 2018, the Association for International Arbitration (AIA) with the support of Billet & Co Lawyers will organise a one-day conference on The Future of Investment Arbitration in Europe. The panellists will provide a comprehensive overview of issues pertinent to investment arbitration, reflections on challenges posed by cultural crossroads and insight into future developments.

The four panels will deep dive into the following topics:

First Panel

Intra-EU BITs: A Way Forward After Achmea (Co-chaired by Mr. Johan Billiet and Prof. Nikos Lavranos)

- Are there alternatives for intra-EU ISDS proceedings?
- What are the wider consequences of Achmea for ECT, extra-EU BITs, CETA?
- How to ensure a high level of investor and investment protection within the EU?

Second Panel

The Invasion of the Common Lawyers: Has International Arbitration Lost Its Trans-Systemic Character? (Chaired by Mr. Diego Brian Gosis)

- Are investment law lawyers culturally diverse?
- Are the arbitrators?
- Do practitioners from different cultures see the same trends?

Third Panel

Investment Court Model: A Practical Review (Chaired by Dr. Todd Weiler)

- Will it be found consistent with EU law?
- Can it really answer most strident objections to ISDS?
- Where might mandatory disclosure of 3rd party funding lead?
- Is the hoped-for multilateral tribunal an impractical pipe-dream?

Fourth Panel

Brexit and the Energy Charter Treaty (Chaired by Mr. Graham Coop)

- What is the present status of the ECT as an intra-EU MIT?
- How will Brexit alter that status, and how relevant will the ECT be to the UK post Brexit?
- What happens to claims arising before Brexit?
- Could investors sue the UK – or the EU – on the basis of Brexit per se?
